LATIN CREDO

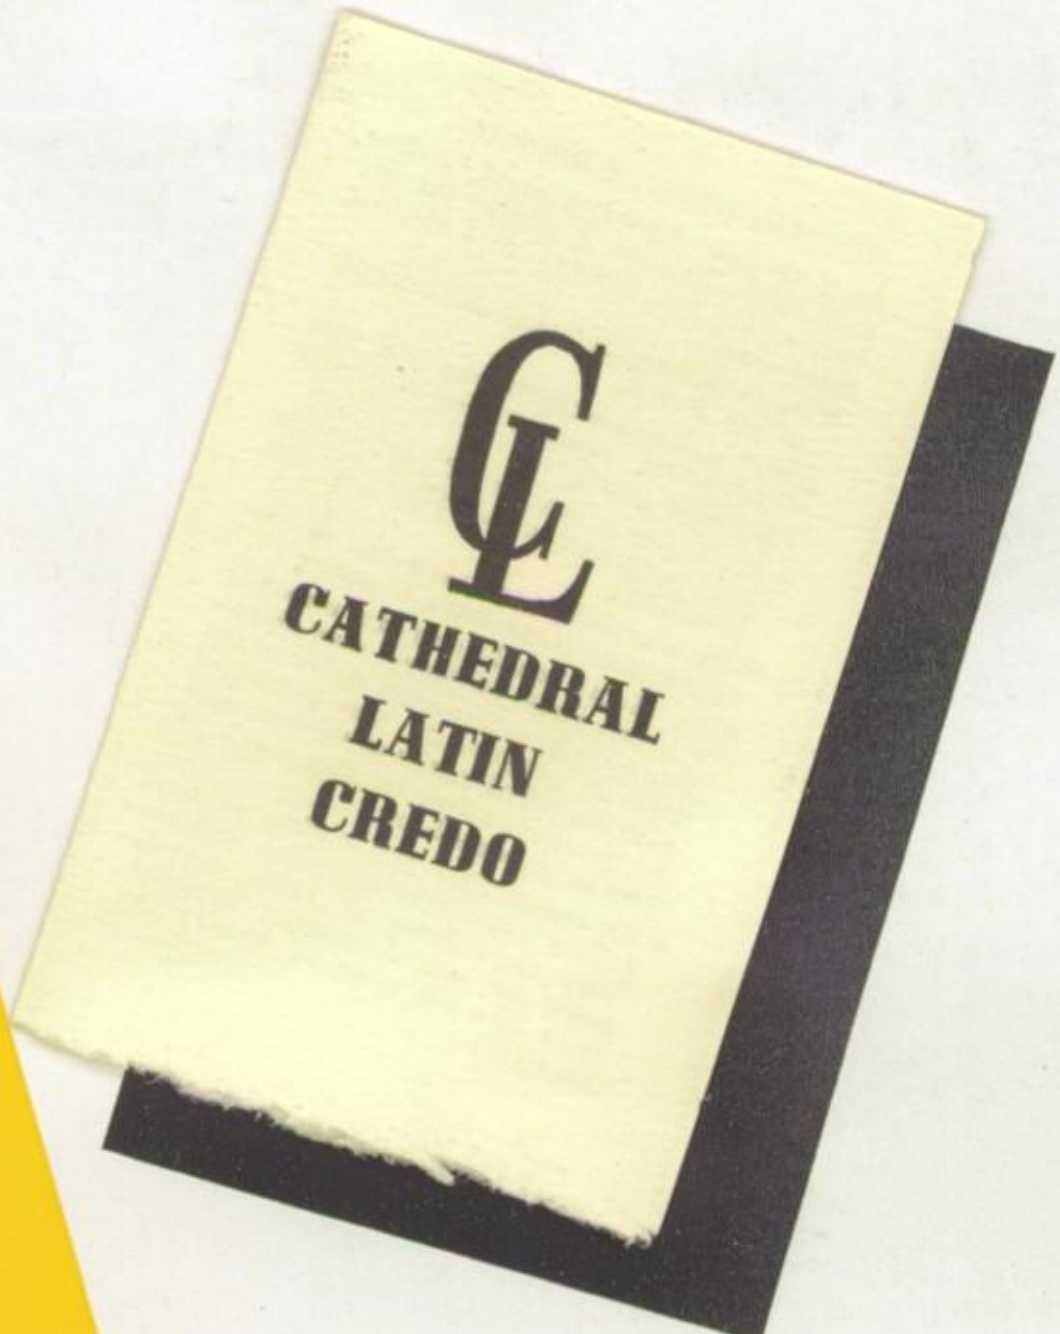
As a student of Cathedral Latin Sc

I pledge on my honor to always

Catholic gentleman:

hool,

be a



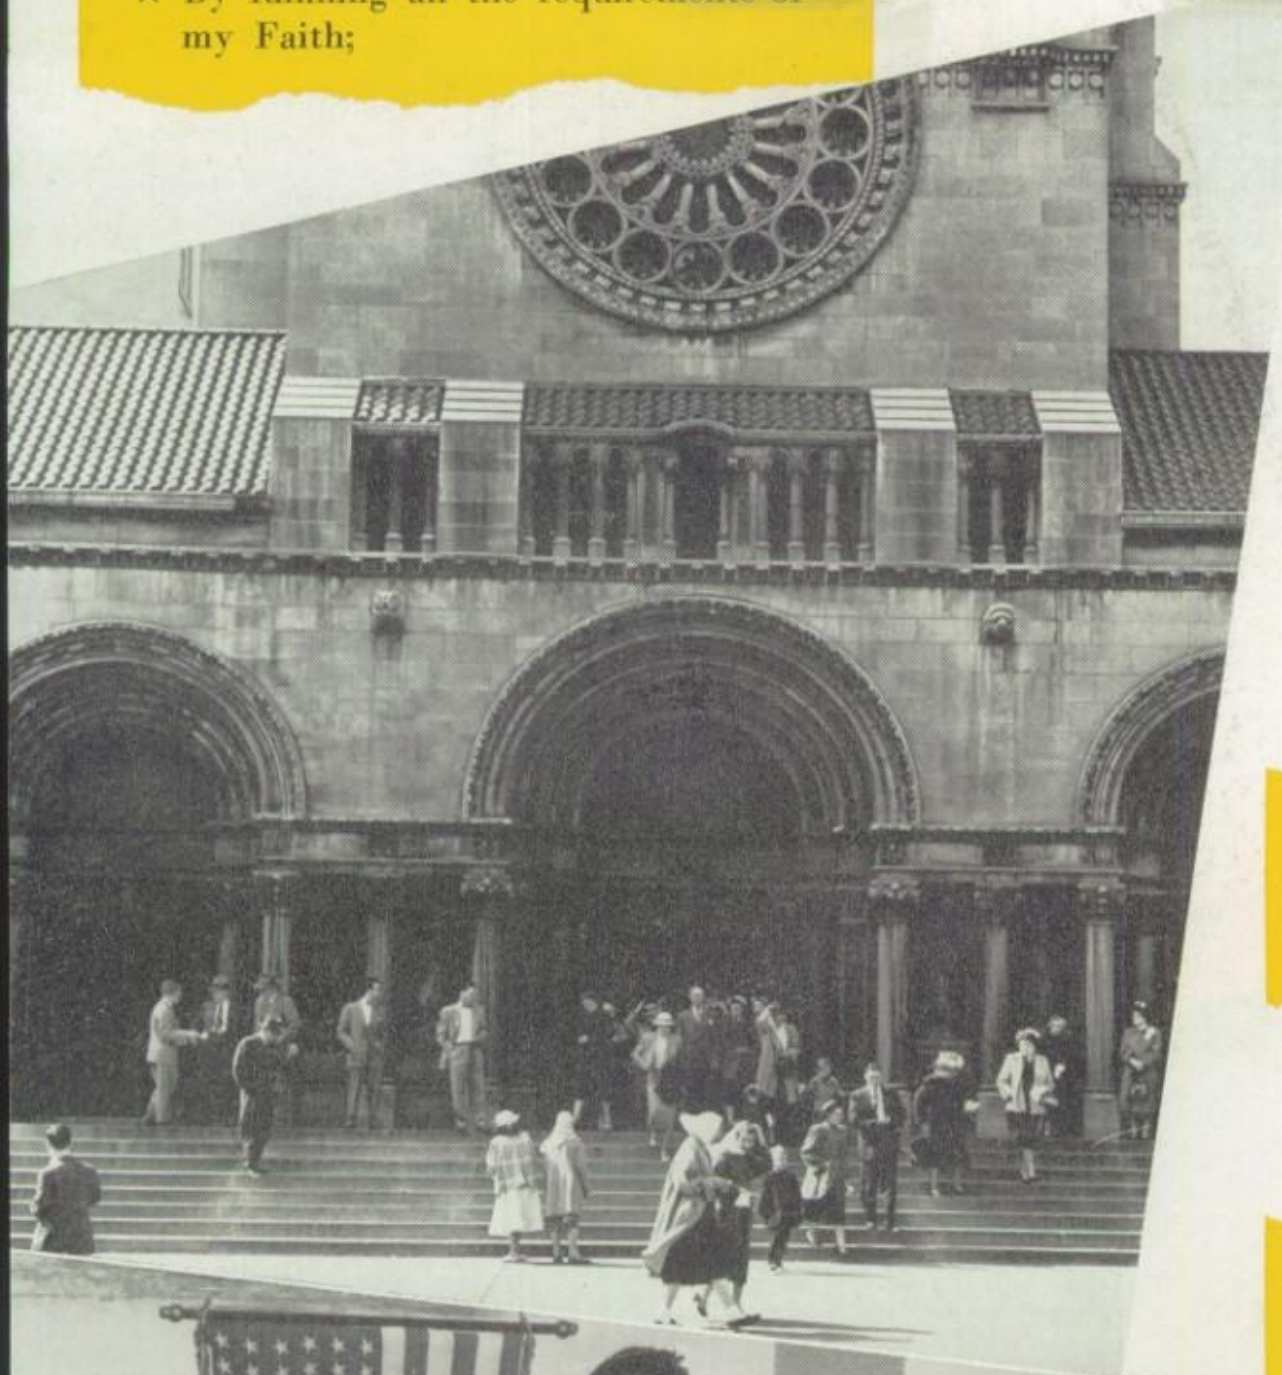
Late in 1950, a student committee was appointed for the purpose of formulating a "credo." A final draft of the "Cathedral Latin Credo" was accepted, printed, and distributed to the student body in May of the following year.

This pledge is more than a mere subjective statement of beliefs—it is a promise to put these beliefs into practice in the various phases that comprise student life.

The Latin Credo is the "lab book" of the student state in life. It gives the "procedure" for using the knowledge instilled by a Christian education.

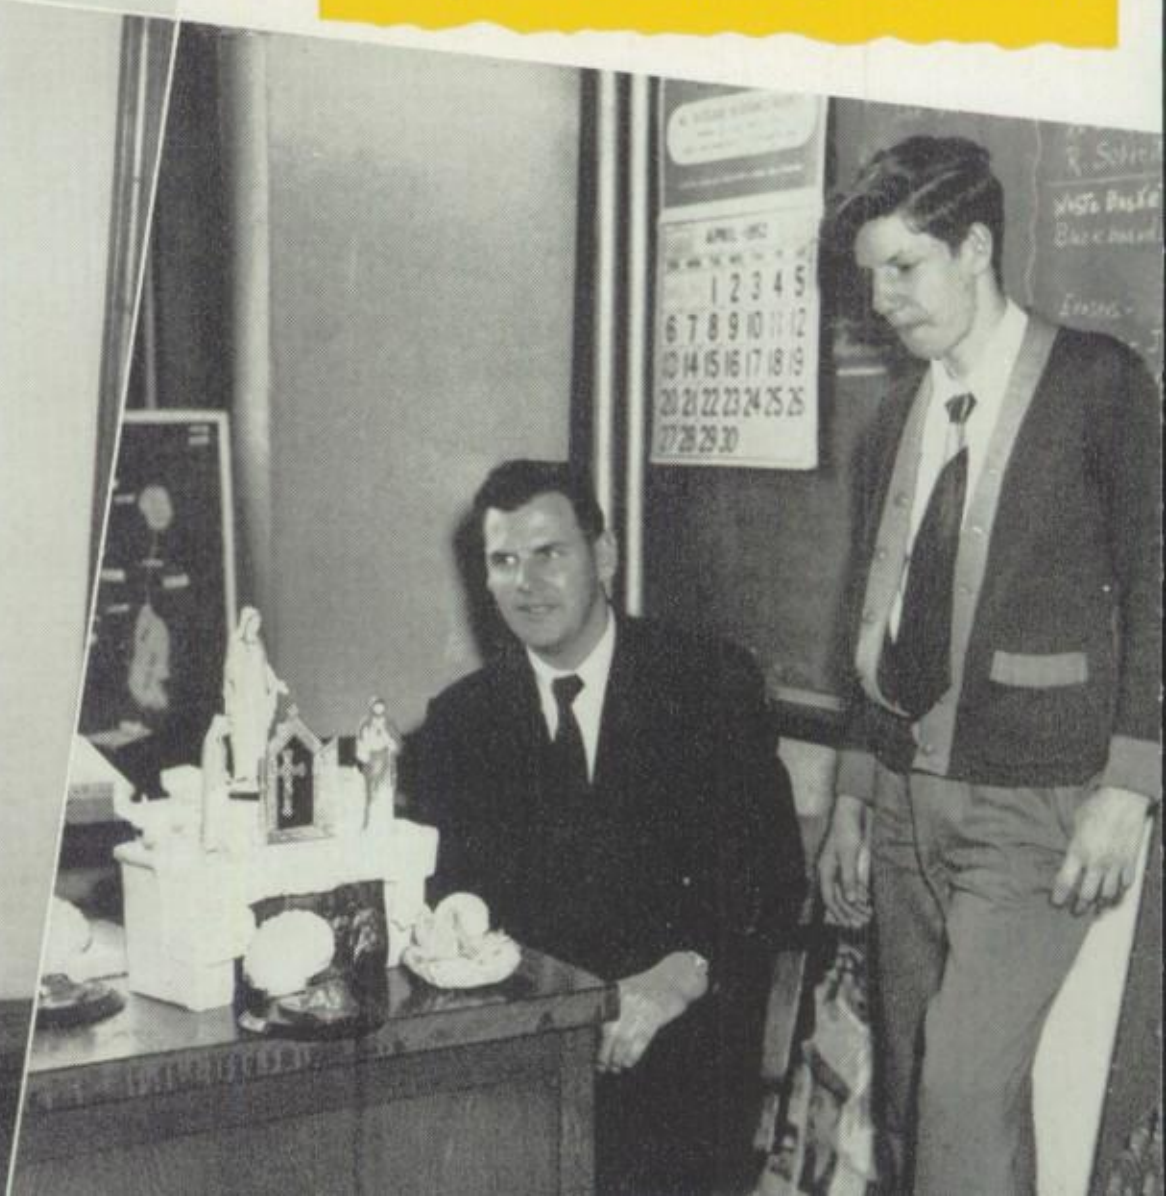
By living up to the Credo, the student takes Catholicism out of the religion class and makes it a living virtue. He lifts human rights out of the civics course and places them on a supernatural plane. He turns his participation in activities into an apostolic venture. He conducts himself properly, not merely because it is necessary for his personal success but for the edification of his neighbor. He is not only a gentleman but a Catholic gentleman.

★ By fulfilling all the requirements of my Faith;



★ By constantly keeping my thoughts, words, desires and actions pure;

★ By being a source of edification and inspiration to others by my conduct;

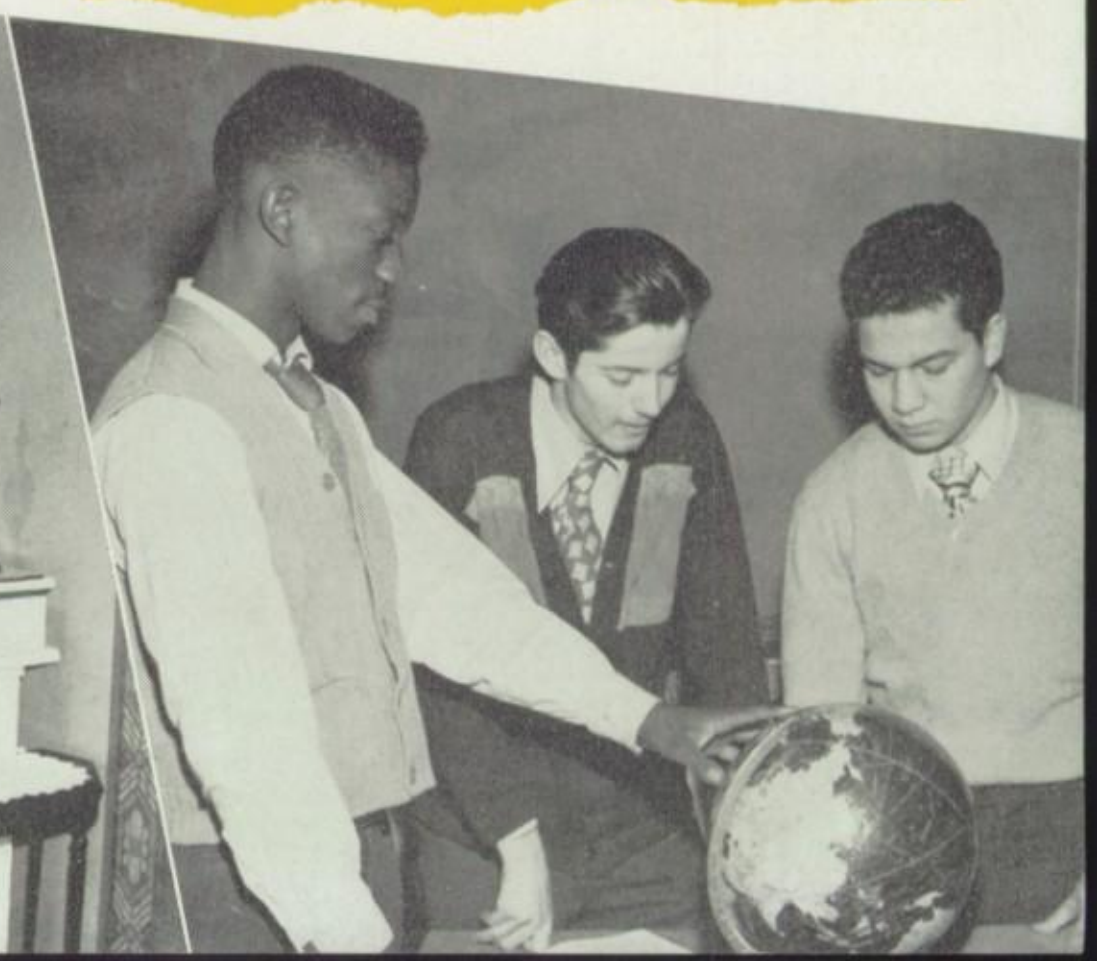


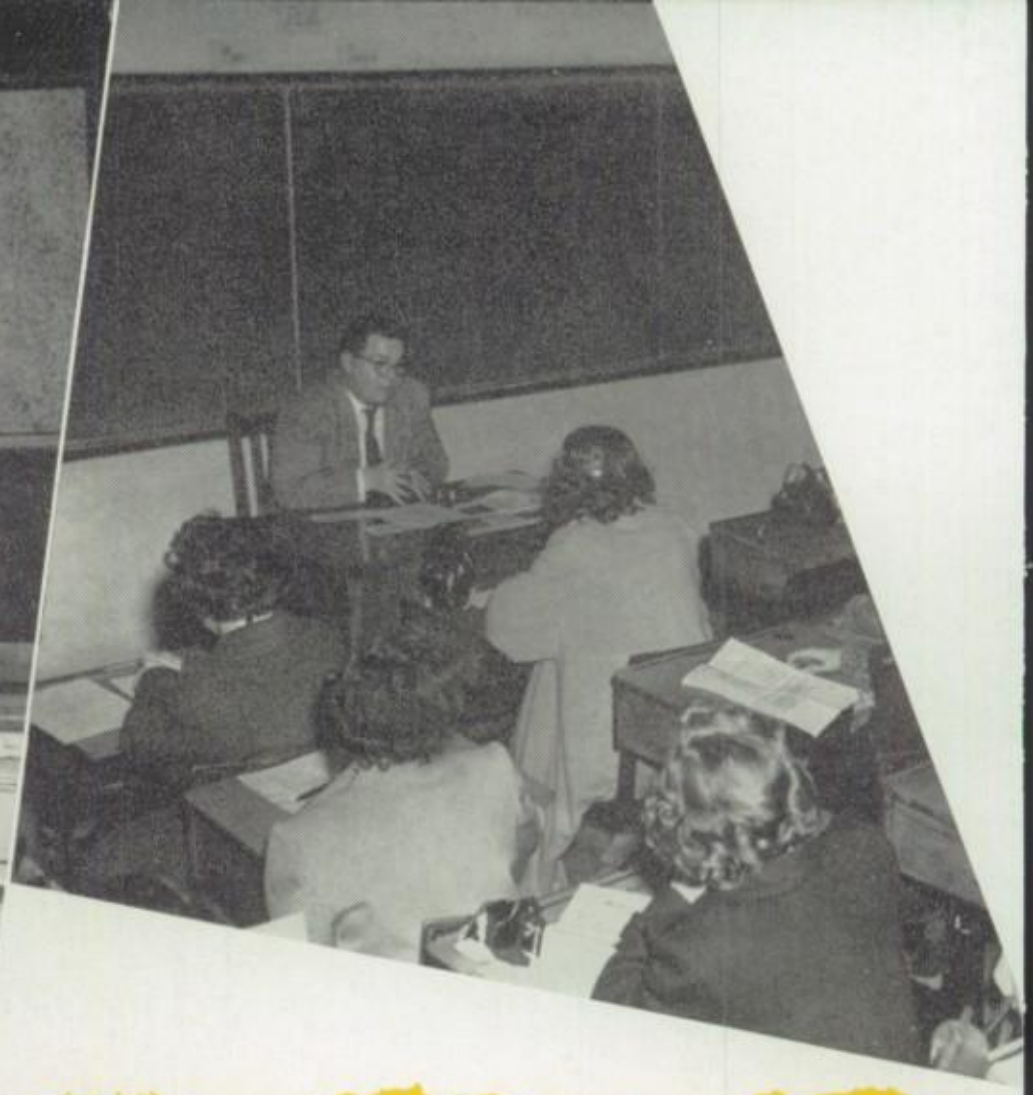
★ By worthily receiving the sacraments at least once a week;

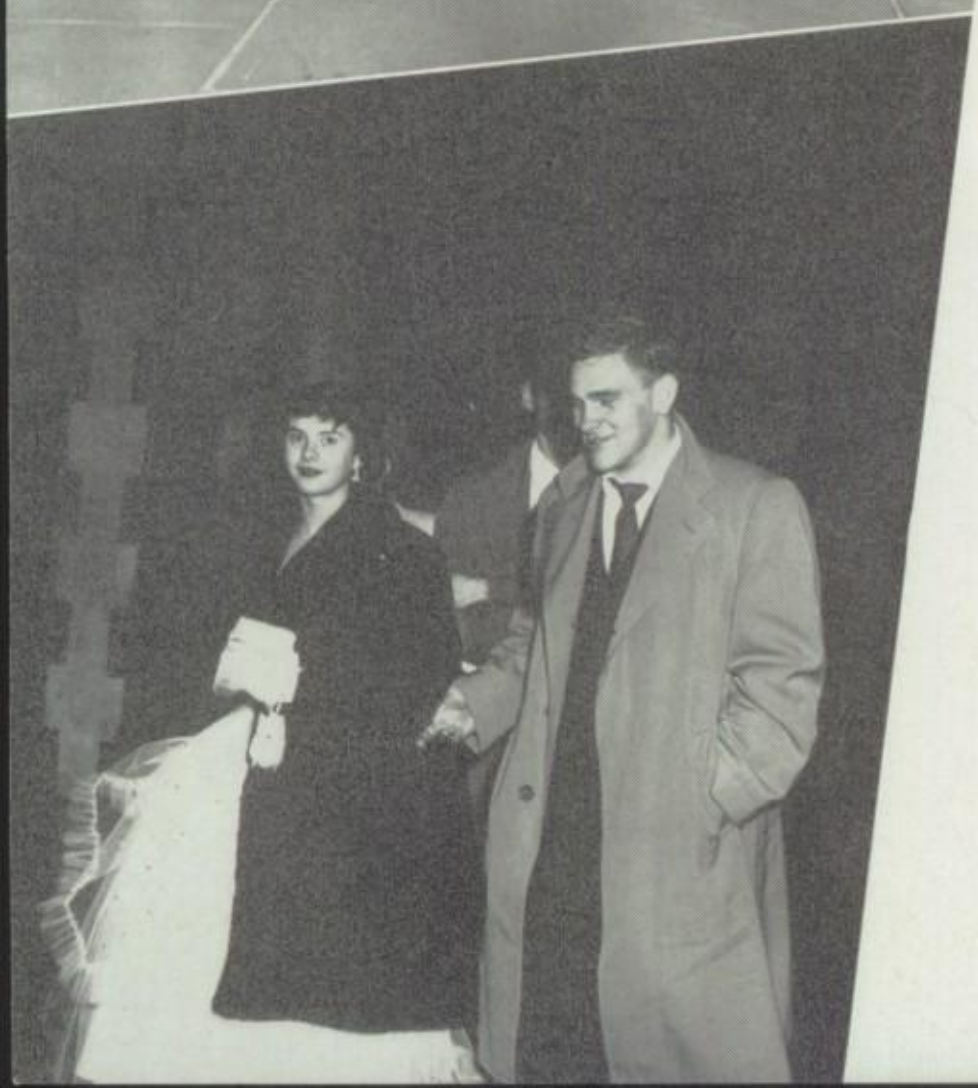
★ By living each day as another Christ, a son of Mary, and showing this love by some daily practice of prayer, by the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, and by participation in the work of the lay apostolate;

★ By respecting the rights of my fellow students and my neighbors regardless of race, color, creed or social origin, because they are all sons of Mary, my Mother;

★ By prayer for peace in the world;







★ By showing cheerful, unreserved obedience to my pastor, my parents, my teachers, and all civil authority, thus recognizing in them the authority of God;

★ By recognizing my duties in my state of life as a student, through loyal cooperation with the regulations of Cathedral Latin School, and active participation in school and parish activities;

★ By being always and in all places a Catholic gentleman, respecting myself and others as temples of the Holy Ghost, being loyal to my Mother Mary and to the ideals of Cathedral Latin School.

I pledge this before the Holy Trinity asking the assistance of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph in fulfilling these pledges.

dedication . . .

To our reverend Archbishop we wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for his solicitous interest, to extend our congratulations on his elevation to the archepiscopacy, and to pledge our continued fidelity and devotion.

The dignity of archbishop was a well-deserved honor and fitting reward for the efforts of the shepherd of our diocese.

Special consideration has always been given to the welfare of the youth of the diocese by the Archbishop, and the students of Cathedral Latin have benefited in a special way from his attentions.

Thankful for all that the Archbishop has done for us as members of his diocese and students of his school, we pledge our obedience and support to him while at Cathedral Latin and in later life as priests, religious, or laymen of the diocese.

With these thoughts in mind, we dedicate this endeavor to Edward F. Hoban, Archbishop-Bishop of the diocese of Cleveland.

The faculty—men consecrated to the noble task of Christian education—were our instructors in the principles embodied in the Latin Credo.

As both friend and advisor to each boy within his guidance, Father Seebold has striven to guide his students to a bright and promising future. The formation of "Christian gentlemen" has been his aim and he has constantly extolled the principles set forth in the Credo.

president's message . . .

June 8, 1952

My dear Graduates,

A long time ago St. John the Evangelist wrote, "This is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith."

You have taken the "Cathedral Latin Credo" as the theme of your yearbook as a permanent public profession of faith in the principles which you have learned at school and which you intend to make the inspiration of your calling and of your life after graduation from school. It is not sufficient to be believers in the Word; you must live what you believe. Your school motto expresses this so eloquently, "Let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth"—opere et veritate.

You must have faith in God, in His Blessed Mother, in yourselves, and in your fellowmen. The promises of God are as eternal and as true as His Divine Essence. "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Light." "No man cometh to the Father except through Me." To meet with perfect success in this life and in the life to come, you must base your conduct on sound Christian principles. "What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul?"

The Blessed Mother of God is designated by the greatest saints of the Church as the "surest, the safest, and the shortest way to God." Filial Piety, Our Divine Savior's own child-like devotion to and love of His mother must characterize your lives to make every moment of those lives consonant with the life and teachings of Christ.

You must have faith in yourselves, in the conviction that you are children of God and of His Blessed Mother—children destined for greater things than the passing success and applause of this world—children who must leave this human family a better society because they have lived in it.

You must have faith in your fellowmen because they are equally the children of God—faith in the knowledge that men can live in lasting peace only when they are conscious of this fact that they are in this world to know God, to love Him, and to serve Him—faith in the divine teaching that you are to love your neighbor as yourselves.

It is this faith in your God, in His Blessed Mother, in yourselves, and in your fellowmen that will bring you the success that you are dreaming about now and that will gain for you the sanction of Holy Scripture, "Blessed art thou that has believed, because the things promised by the Lord shall be accomplished."

My heartiest congratulations to you, the Class of 1952! May Our Divine Model and His Blessed Mother keep you men of deep faith!

Sincerely yours in J. M. J.,

Very Reverend Andrew L. Seebold, S. M., Ph. D.

Supplementing the work of the principal, the other members of the administration have accomplished their respective tasks with a dispatch that has efficiently smoothed over the many difficulties which arise in the functioning of a school.

Student problems, financial difficulties, and spiritual questions were dumped into their laps with an assurance that a solution would be forthcoming.

Their manner of fulfilling the duties of their state in life was a source of inspiration to the student.

The task of our faculty is to prepare us for the new world we will step into after graduation. Not only must they educate us in language, the arts, and the sciences, but as Catholic educators they must also instill in us Christian principles.

In the classroom they teach the fundamentals—through the guidance program they direct skill and ability into respective careers—in the activities they develop leadership and, throughout all the phases of their work they carry the integrating factor—filial devotion to Mary.

As exemplars of the tenets contained in the Credo, none better could be found than the faculty of Cathedral Latin School.

Into the challenge of the future, the graduates of 1952 carry the principles of the Latin Credo as a guide and reminder of their obligations to God, themselves, and to all men.

senior class officers

With their election, the senior class officers assumed a two-fold obligation—to represent the senior class and to provide leadership for the entire school—and throughout the year they have faithfully fulfilled both tasks.

Individually the officers ranked high in activity participation. All were active in either the Sodality or the C.S.M.C. Varsity athletics claimed Jim Ramsey, president; Carmen Santa Maria, secretary; and Jim Feldkircher, treasurer; while vice-president George Thorpe lent his talents as managing editor of the "Latineer." Charles McCabe, alternate, engaged in debating as his major extra-curricular activity.

Mr. John Hruby tribute

Mr. John J. Hruby

Under the baton of Mr. John J. Hruby, who this year will retire after twenty-four years of directing the C. L. Band, hundreds of Cathedral Latin students through the years have been instilled with a knowledge of the fine points of music. He has fostered an appreciation for music which helps complete "the Catholic gentleman." This contribution of Mr. Hruby to the cultural level of the school shall long be remembered by the graduates of '52, the students and faculty, who dedicate this page to him.

senior A . . .

Combining the religious, intellectual, athletic, and social aspects of school life together with a spirit of cooperation, the class of 4A seems to have individualized itself among its fellow classes. Two cheerleaders and an outstanding athlete came from its ranks. It was good to see Jim Feldkircher crashing through the line or sinking a lay up while Tom Kmiec and Tom Vorndran led the cheers. Another 4A man, Ron Mancini, helped the track team in its successes. Among 4A men members of the N.H.S. were Feldkircher, George Thorpe, Frank Kaspar, Tom Kmiec, Ron Mancini, Lewis Valentine and Bob DeAngelis. Active members in the Whirlo were Larry Parker, Tom Minadeo, and Pat Purcell. Representing 4A on the Dance Committee, Tony Jezior and Kaspar acted as ticket agents for the various dances, which were well attended by men of the class. The Sodality claimed one-third of the group. Journalists were not rare in 4A, for it claims four editors and one sports writer for the Latineer. They were Mike Ward, Valentine, DeAngelis, Kaspar, and Thorpe. Leadership for the class was provided by its officers: Feldkircher, Thorpe, Kaspar and Mancini—the first two of whom were Senior Class Officers. The real inspiration of the class was provided by its homeroom teacher, Brother Bernard Jansen.

Young, R. Raymond. Missing: L. Simak, N. Whitney.

"A little of everything and a lot left over" . . . This clearly defines senior homeroom 4B. With Mr. Harry Bixler as homeroom advisor, the class elected Jim Ramsey as president; Ron Bogolin, vice-president; Bill Ryan, secretary; and Tom Thornton, treasurer. Names frequently appearing on the honor roll were: Jim Ramsey, Ron Bogolin, Jim Raymond, Bob Spies, John Mulhern, and Tom Thornton. Associate editor of the "Latineer" and "Purple and Gold" was Ron Bogolin, while Art Bostwick was associate sports editor of the "Latineer" and activities editor of the "P and G." Bogolin was also a member of the debate team and Sodality. The N.H.S. and Sodality claimed eight members from senior B.

Larry Simak, Jim Ramsey, and Leo Collins were on the varsity grid squad, while Ramsey and Tom Lanese represented 4B under the hoops. Max Mohr and Ray Pfeiffer were varsity cindermen. Len Roether was an upstairs athletic manager, while Chuck Rini led the class in intramurals. Ron Peipsny, Al Robinson, and Tom Thornton were members of the school Band.

Probably the most outstanding characteristic of this class was versatility.

The second half of the year we saw Maruna as president, with Ray Rutkowski, vice-president, Ray Ready, secretary, and Al Strok, treasurer. These two groups carried Senior D through a very successful senior year. John Kleri as well as Maruna were steady men on the honor roll. Athletes on the gridiron for 4D were Mathias as captain of the squad and Grdina, who became all-scholastic. Other activities which embodied 4D men were Debating with Charles McCabe and Frank Penko; C.S.M.C. with Larry Skrivan, Penko, and McCabe; and Leo Dardzinski in the Camera club. The Sodality claimed Divis, Dardzinski, Wallace, Penko, McCabe, Skrivan, Kleri, and Maruna while the Whirlo claimed Dick Bruyere and Don Foye. Working to put the ideals of the Latin Credo into action was the project which molded the class of 4E into an outstanding senior class. Besides having representatives in many activities, 4E also boasted a powerful intramural team. Athletically, John Siwinski and Don Engeman were stand-bys on the varsity football squad; Dick Merk put his efforts into varsity basketball, and Jack Cassell's fleetness was one of the reasons for the success of the track team. Representatives to the dance committee were Larry Franey and Ron Wysocki; Jerry Rezac, besides being a consistent honor roll student, was engaged in Sodality and P and G work. An intramural bowling team was organized, and Pete DeFranco named as its captain. May the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary.

"We are our brothers' keeper." This is the firm belief of the members of the Catholic Student's Mission Crusade at Cathedral Latin. Leading the students was Brother James Masur who worked closely with the four officers of the group, President Charles McCabe, Vice-President Frank Penko, Secretary John Morrow, and Treasurer, Ray Hobart.

The C.S.M.C. was active in sending needed medicine to Congo missions and in sponsoring the first diocesan Mission Study Day which was attended by four hundred students and faculty representatives of many of the diocesan high schools in this area.

During the Christmas season the members of this organization prepared one hundred baskets of food which were distributed among needy families in the area.

Interpreting news in the light of Christian principles, the Cathedral Latin student publication, the "Latineer," recorded the news as it was made. Advising the scribes as to what techniques are the best were Brother George Dienlien and Mr. Peter Szymersky. Honoring students who deserve recognition for their scholarship, their ability to command a situation, and their character, the Cardinal Mooney Chapter of the National Honor Society admitted 50 students to its membership this year. In the past, the presence of this honorary organization has proved itself an encouragement to other students to improve their work, both scholastic and extra-curricular. Many of the achievements of this organization during the past year were the direct result of the efforts of its moderator, Brother John Bolin.

Present as visible reminders of Latin's glorious past and expectations for the future are the many school trophies.

Sport trophies are the most prominent, they number 74. Among these are 28 track awards, 13 football trophies, 5 basketball trophies, 3 golf trophies and one each for hockey, bowling, and tennis. The remaining trophies mark the accomplishments of the speech and journalism groups.

The year 1920 marked the beginning of the collection, and now, in 1952, slightly more than three decades later, there are three filled trophy cases which clearly tell the tale of Latin achievement.

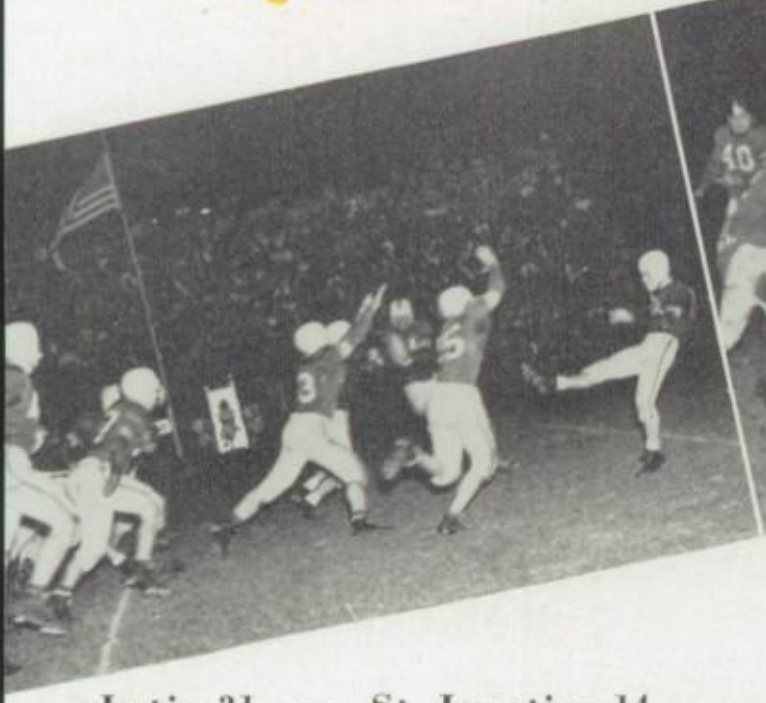
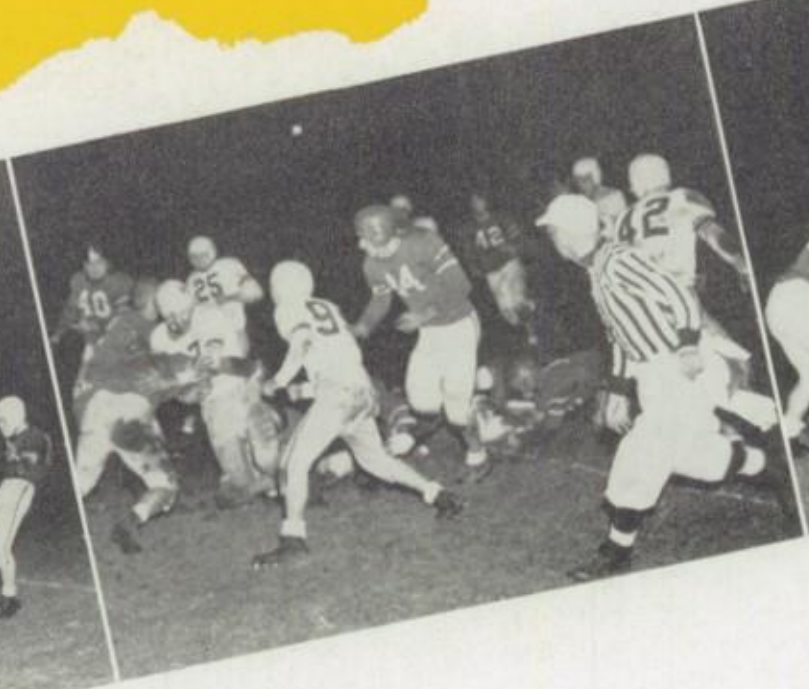
the latin lions

1951 football season . . .



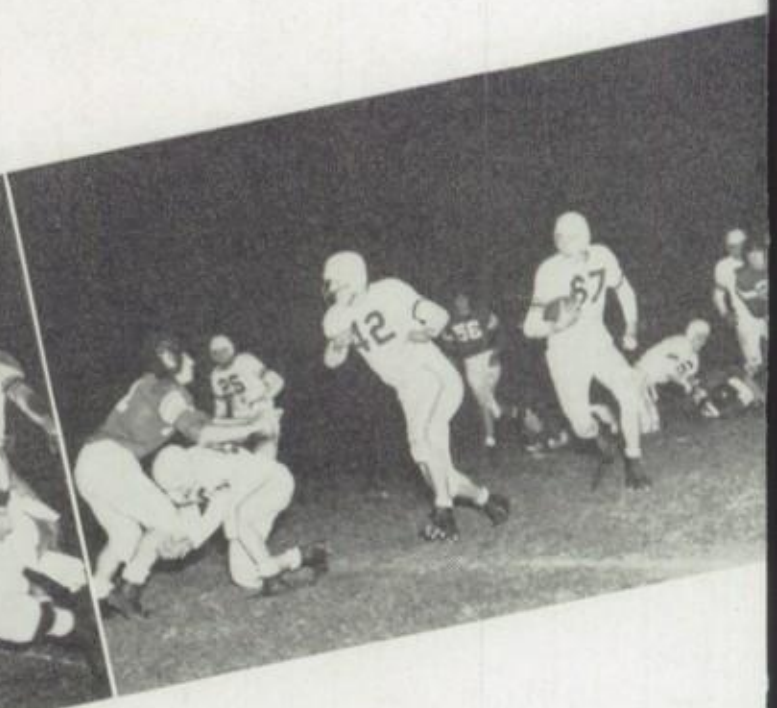
Latin 31 — St. Ignatius 14

Opening their grid year with a decisive victory over the City Champions, St. Ignatius, the Latin football squad gave promise of a very successful season. Fullback Jim DeFabio sparked the Latin squad by scoring three of the team's five touchdowns, to annex Latin's first football victory, 31-14.



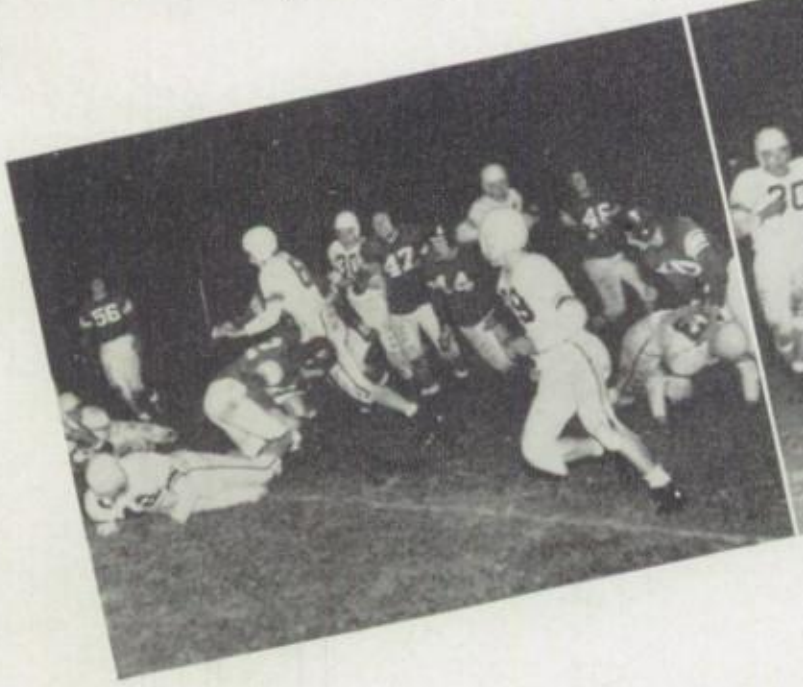
Latin 19 — Canton Central Catholic 13

Further indication of Latin's football prowess was shown by their 19-13 comeback victory over Canton Central Catholic on the Canton home field. With the team trailing in the fourth quarter 13-7, halfback Jim Feldkircher scored two touchdowns providing the margin of victory.



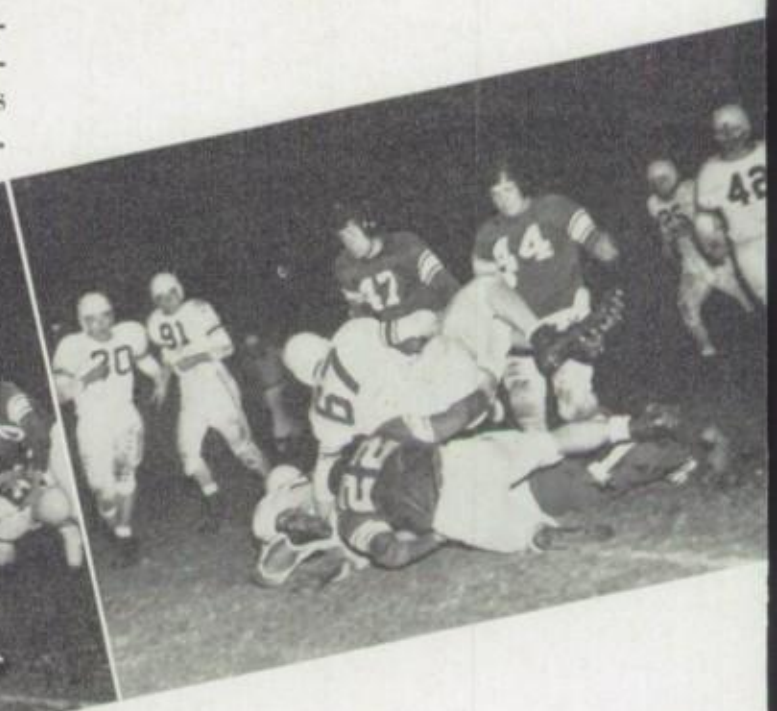
Latin 6 — Benedictine 25

The Bengals of Benedictine provided a dampener on the spirits of Latin as they defeated the Lions by a 25-6 score. Latin's lone tally came on a long pass from quarterback George Brickman to end Jim Ramsey.



Latin 12 — East Tech 46

A fourth quarter rally by the East Tech squad transformed a hotly contested battle into a near rout as the Latinites suffered their second defeat of the season. A few breaks combined with some stellar playing provided a 34 point margin of victory for the Scarabs.



Latin 33 — East 13

On a snowswept Patrick Henry gridiron the Lions avenged their defeat of the previous week by staggering the East Bombers 33-13. Decidedly the underdogs, the unpredictable Latinites refused to yield a point to the Bombers until late in the fourth quarter.

Latin 12 — John Adams 0

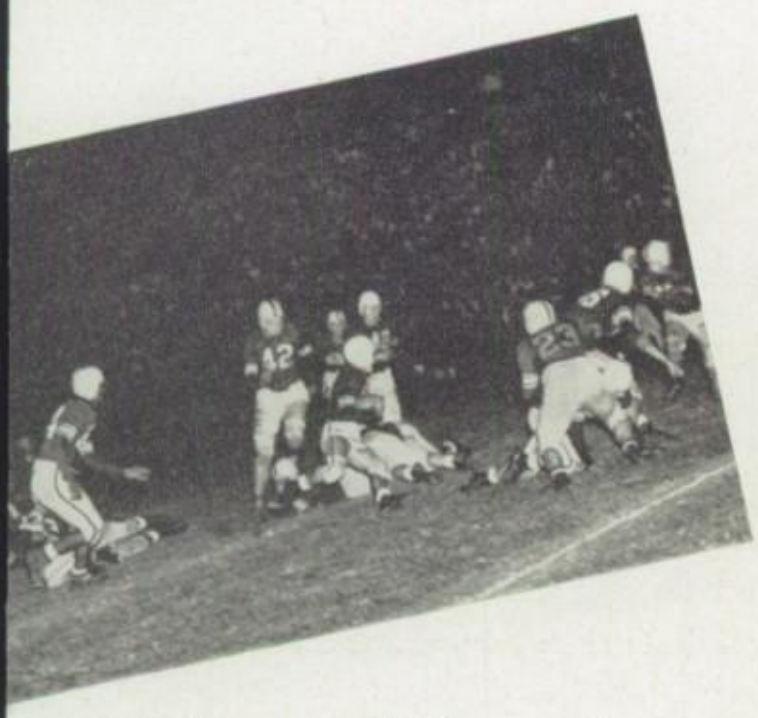
Rebounding from their episode with the Bengals, the Latinites came back to down a strong John Adams eleven 12-0. Quarterback George Brickman passed to end Jim Ramsey for the first score and fullback Larry Simak sped 25 yards down the sidelines for the final tally.

Latin 44 — Glenville 0

Displaying a determined offense and an equally efficient defense the Lions trounced Glenville 44-0 for their second straight shutout. Highlight of the game was a thirty-eight yard touchdown scamper on a pass interception by guard John Siwinski. Halfback Jim Feldkircher contributed two scores to the Lion cause.

Latin 20 — Holy Name 7

John Adams field was the scene of the traditional battle between the Green Wave of Holy Name and the 107 Streeters. The Tide was stemmed, however, by a 20-7 margin through the efforts of halfback Jim Feldkircher, quarterback George Brickman and fullback Don Weeks who tallied once each.



Latin 0 — Collinwood 7

Completely outplaying the Collinwood team for four quarters, the Lions made only one mistake and that was fatal. Early in the first quarter Joe Trivisonno broke away for the only tally. The two teams fought each other to a standstill for the remainder of the game.

Despite the fact that half of their schedule was canceled, the Latin plebe footballers gave an impressive showing as they went undefeated in four games.

Coached by Mr. Francis Kilbane and Brother Kenneth Sommer, the Lion cubs rolled up 133 points while holding their opponents to 30 as they trounced Benedictine, St. Joseph, St. Ignatius, and Holy Name.

Benedictine was the first to fall, as the Little Lions gained one of their most cherished victories, 26-6.

Next it was St. Joseph's who fell before the onslaught, they by a score of 41-12. St. Ignatius was no match either, as they were shut out 25-0.

The season ended on October 31, as Holy Name was bounced 41-12.

The frosh were paced by fullback Anthony Discenzo, quarterback Pete Pucher, and their captain, guard Dave Papuga.

Combining their mental and physical abilities the athletic managers work throughout the school year making the necessary preparations for various football, basketball, and track events.

Arriving at school hours before a game the downstairs managers put the uniforms in order and hand out equipment. During the game these boys administer first aid when needed and after the game they collect the uniforms and place them in their proper places.

Selling tickets for various sports events is just one small part of the job played by the upstairs managers. Among their other duties are preparing eligibility lists of players, scheduling all nonsenate events and arriving early on the night of the game to collect tickets at the gate.

The downstairs managers are under the leadership of Brother James Kilroy while Brother Thomas Powers guides the upstairs managers.

"Latin's loyalist rooters" is a well deserved title for the cheerleaders of the school. These boys were on hand to lead the cheers at all of the Lions' football and basketball games.

Led by senior cheerleaders Tom Vorndran, Frank Torok, Tom Kmiec, and Larry Werner, these fellows set the pace for the students as they attempted to "pep-up" the players.

Practicing tirelessly after school, the cheerleaders developed new routines, wrote new cheers, and continually sought to improve the old ones.

Under the guidance of Brother James Masur, these loyal rooters have successfully done their part to keep the old "Latin Spirit" alive throughout the past year.

Although the varsity hardwood season was not as big a success as had been anticipated, it provided many a thrill for the cage enthusiasts at Latin. The record shows that the Lions compiled only four wins as compared to eleven losses. Many of the games that were placed in the lost column were the result of last quarter splurges by their opponents. Big Chuck Kukula, Jim Ramsey, Carmen Santa Maria, and Paul Fogo were the nucleus of the squad and all will be lost as a result of graduation. Walt Zeilinski, Don Weeks, Tony Gambatese, Al Musca, Al Perko, and Jerry Scott, all juniors, saw plenty of action throughout the season and will provide an experienced team next year.

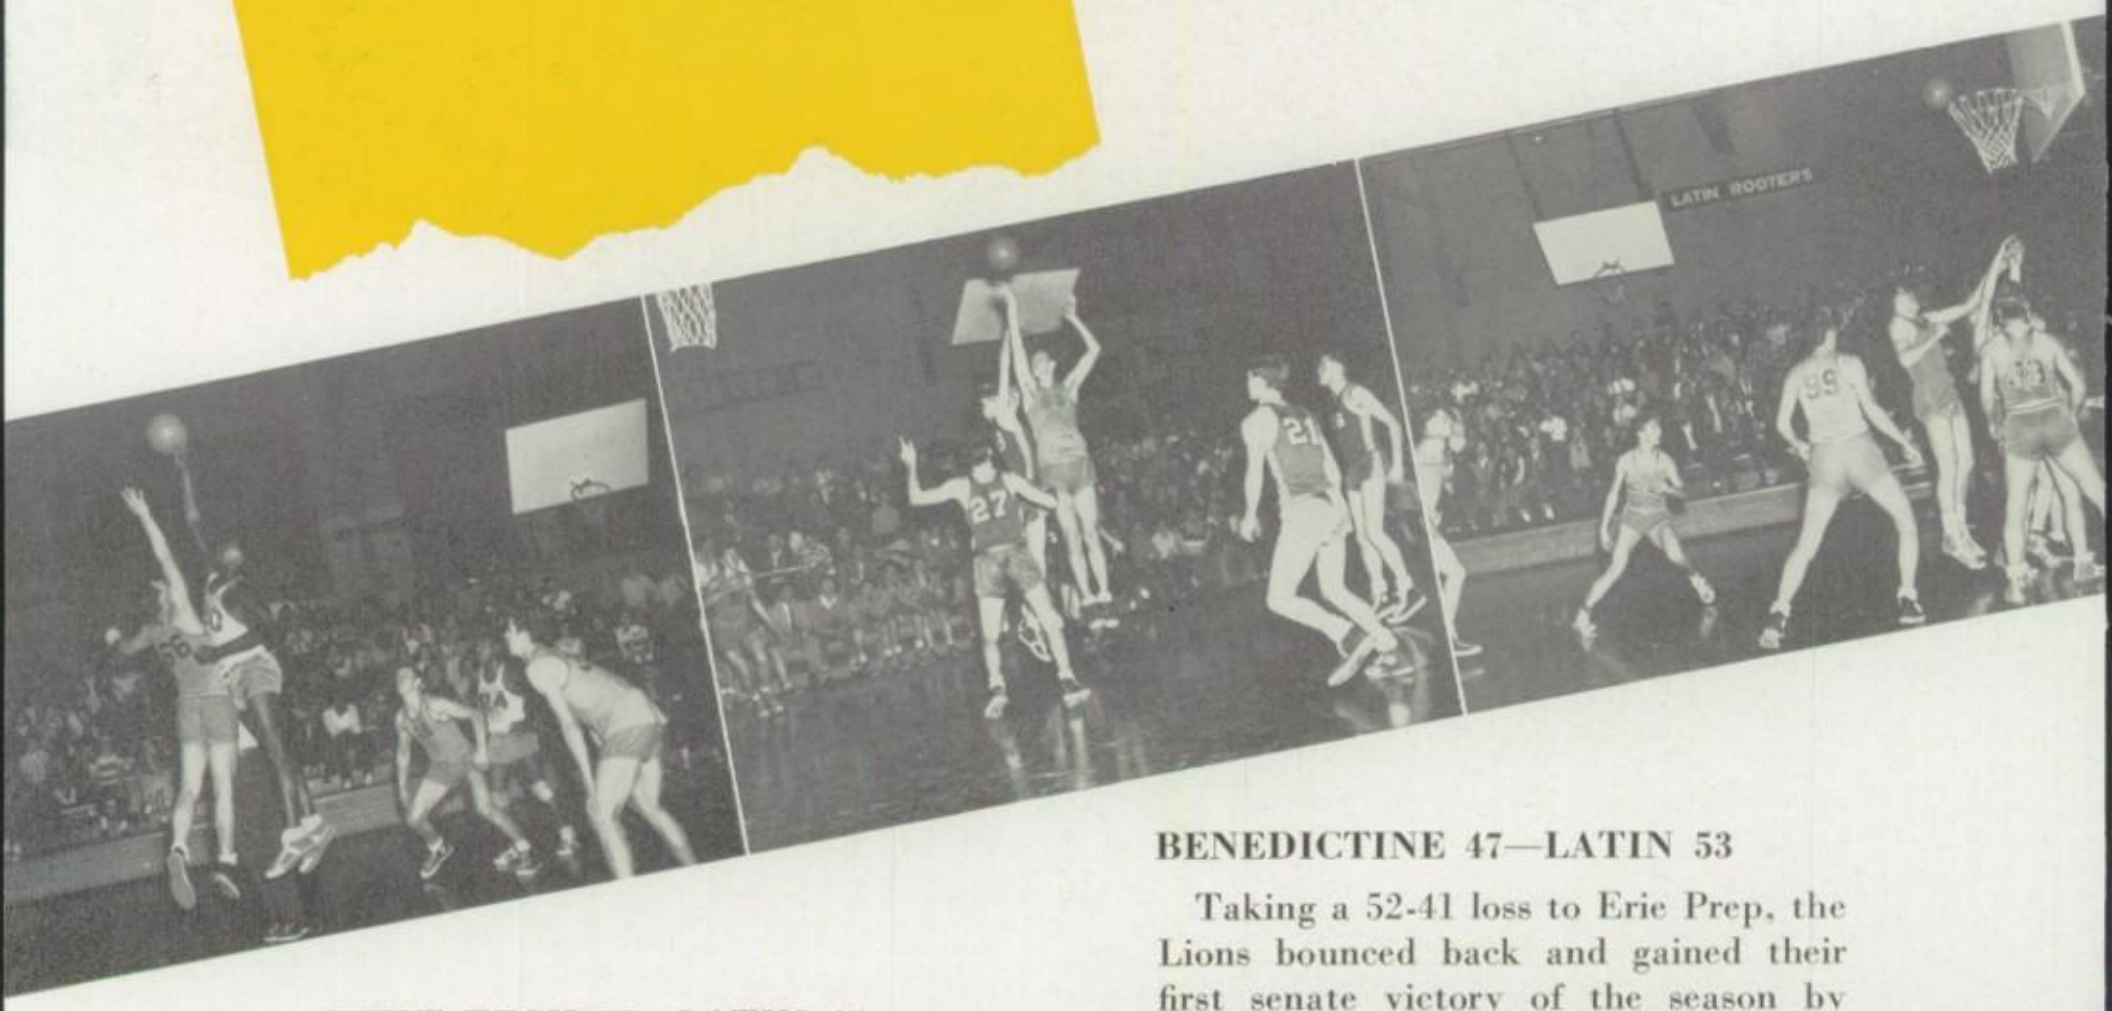
1951-1952 basketball season



WEST TECH 57—LATIN 47

Opening the varsity hardwood season with Carmen Santa Maria and Paul Fogo as co-captains, the Lions suffered their first setback to the fast moving West Tech quintet.

IGNATIUS 72—LATIN 41

Absorbing a 52-44 dubbing from a cagy Rhodes squad, the varsity lost their third straight game of the season to the St. Ignatius Wildcats, this season's runner-up champions in the senate.

SOUTH 37—LATIN 52

Senior forward Jim Ramsey netted 12 points to lead the Lions to their first victory of the hardwood season by overpowering a fighting South High squad.

BENEDICTINE 47—LATIN 53

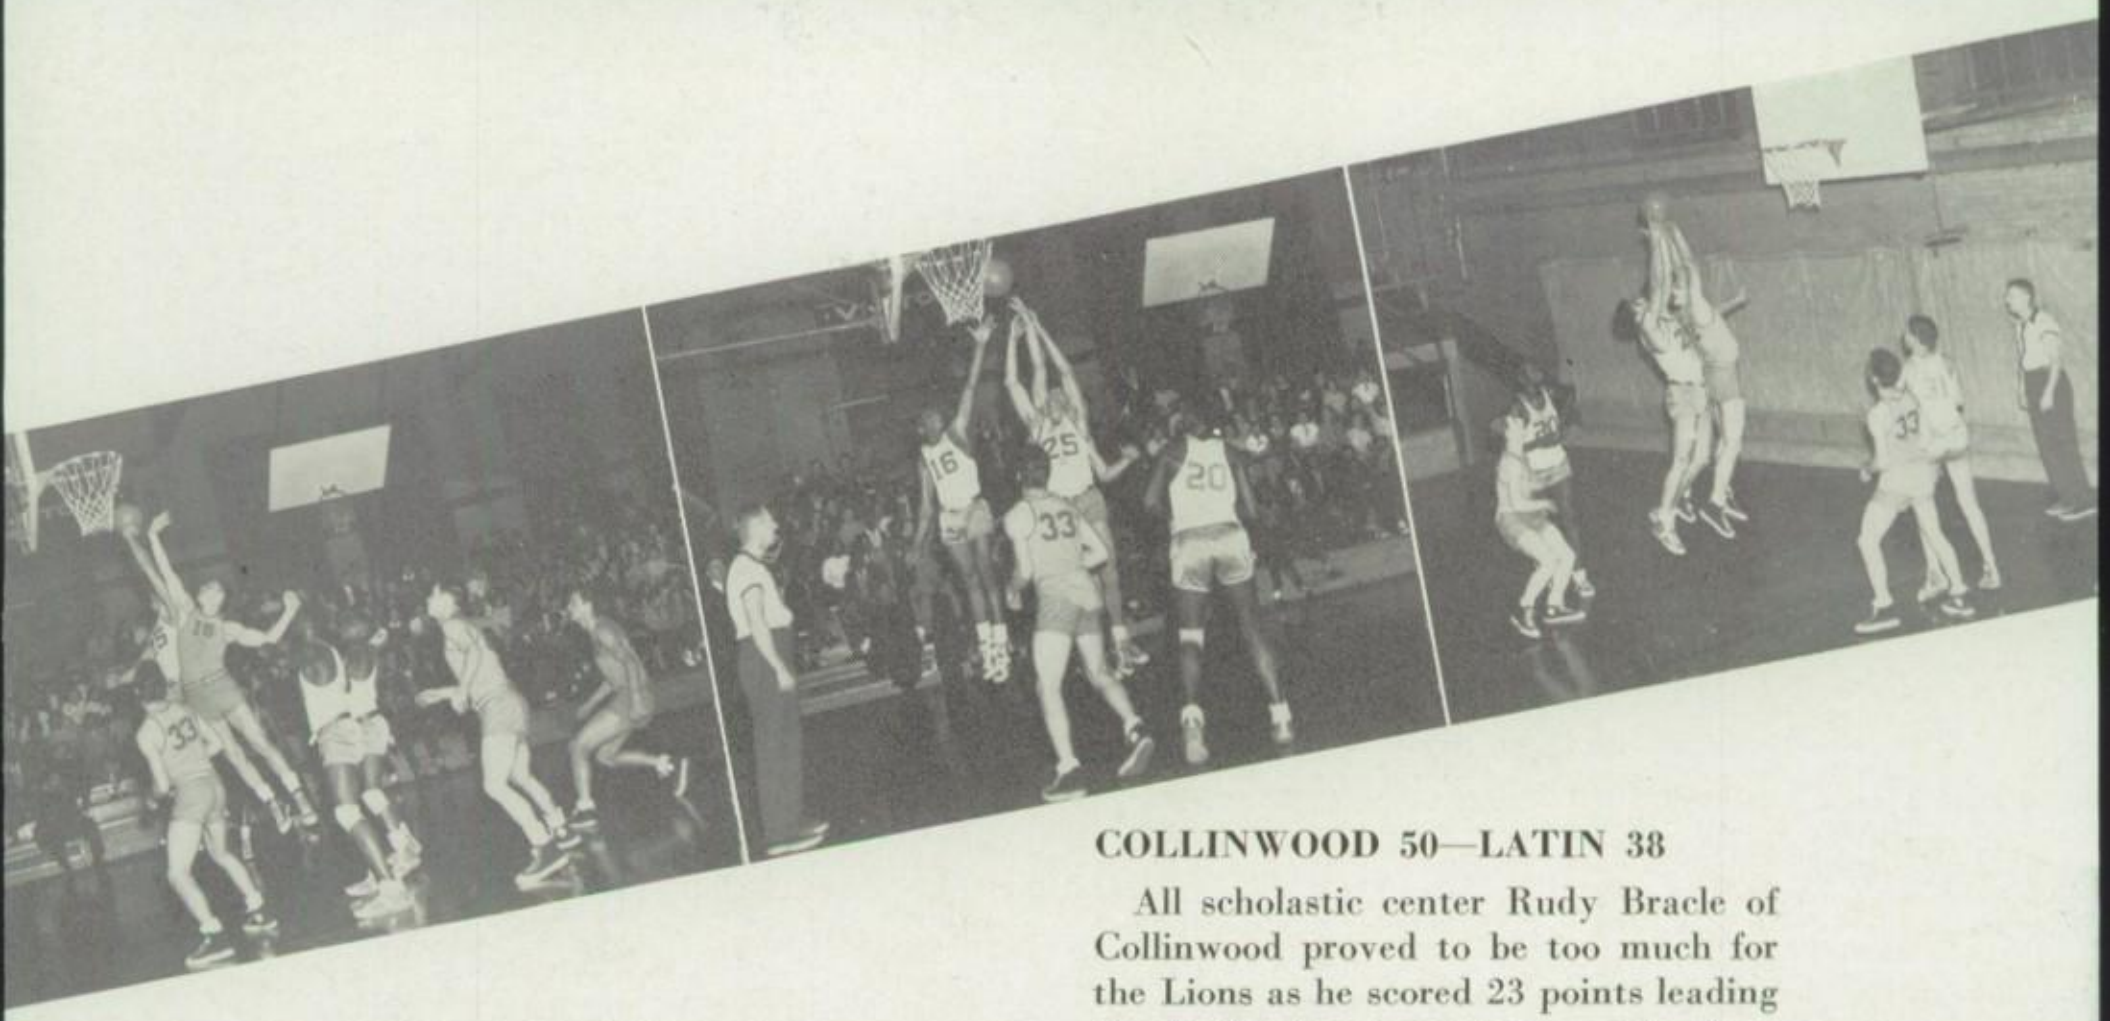
Taking a 52-41 loss to Erie Prep, the Lions bounced back and gained their first senate victory of the season by stopping the Bengal squad after their last quarter rally fell short.

JOHN HAY 41—LATIN 53

Following a loss to an aggressive Thomas Edison squad by a score of 50-38, Don Weeks, a junior forward, scored 19 points to lead the attack against the Lions neighbor rivals.

JOHN ADAMS 61—LATIN 48

Seeking to avenge last season's defeat by the Lions, the John Adams Rebels stopped the varsity and handed them their first senate loss of the year, despite the 18 points scored by Walt Zielinski.



GLENVILLE 40—LATIN 44

Due to the brilliant guarding of Carmen Santa Maria, Glenville's scoring threat, Jerry Stern was held to 18 points and the Lions gained their third senate victory of the season.

EAST TECH 67—LATIN 58

Netting 22 points in the third quarter, the East Tech Artisans compiled enough points to stop a determined varsity squad which was led by Carmen Santa Maria who netted 20 points.

EAST 56—LATIN 48

Facing a powerful East High quintet the Lions determination for victory was subdued by the Bombers who stopped the Lions despite the 15 points netted by forward Don Weeks.

COLLINWOOD 50—LATIN 38

All scholastic center Rudy Bracle of Collinwood proved to be too much for the Lions as he scored 23 points leading the Railroaders to victory and handing the Lions their fourth senate loss.

CENTRAL 55—LATIN 43

Playing the last senate game of the season against the Central Trojans, Latin was on the short end of the 55-43 score, thus finishing the senate season in fourth place with three wins and five losses.

HOLY NAME 47—LATIN 46

Holding the lead until the fourth quarter the Lion cagers fell by one point to the force of the Green Wave, thus bringing down the curtain on another hardwood season.

junior varsity basketball

Capping a highly successful season by winning their first senate junior varsity crown, the Latin Little Lions rolled up a record of 13 victories against only two losses. After extending their successive victory string to twenty-eight by winning their first two games, they were handed their first loss in two years by the St. Ignatius junior varsity, 53-35.

They were unstoppable during the rest of the season, however, and won the East senate junior varsity title with a 8-0 record.

It was Ignatius again at the Arena championship game, and it looked as if the same pattern was to be followed as half-time showed a five point deficit. A strong comeback, however, netted a 42-36 victory, and the senate crown.

The J. V.'s were sparked by great play from Bobby Mandato, Jim Stephenson, Steve Bosway, Tony Frate, Norm Humphries, and Jim Passant.

With an undefiled record of seventeen straight victories the plebe hardwooders lent a joyful note to the Latin athletic program. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Francis Kilbane, who had already piloted a frosh football squad to a perfect season, the freshman rolled over such formidable opponents as Holy Name, Collinwood, Benedictine, and Ignatius.

Center and leading scorer for the squad was Tony Dicenzo who rolled up a total of 199 points over the course of the season. Close upon his heels were Richard Deere and Jack Goodrich who both netted over 100 markers.

Dick Krebs and Richard Toth capably filled the two remaining positions on the first squad with their superlative playing.

INDOOR TRACK

With the K of C meet and the Indoor Senate meet as their major contests of the season, the indoor track squad strove daily at Case Gym to prepare for them. Their efforts were not in vain as the two mile relay team comprised of John Cassell, Denis Koesel, Frank Andel, and Jim Goetz placed second in the former contest and first in the latter. Under the careful tutelage of Mr. Walczuk the entire team gave a commendable performance throughout the season.

OUTDOOR TRACK

As spring arrived tracksters at Latin turned to the cinders of the outdoor oval and began preparing for the many important meets of the season. The ultimate goal of every thinclad was to qualify for the all important State meet. Other important meets were the Mansfield and Ohio Wesleyan Relays, the East Tech and West Tech Invitational meets and the City and District meets.

intramural bowling

Set Them Up in the Next Alley

Ample opportunity for both novice and veteran keglers to display their skill was provided by the intramural bowling league. Comprised chiefly of upperclassmen, the teams could be found vieing for top honors at the Trianon Lanes on Wednesday afternoons. High game of the season was posted by Don Major, and Jim Abraham sported the finest average.

thanks to our patrons . . .

To the friends and patrons of Cathedral Latin, we owe a special debt of gratitude. Their assistance and encouragement has been a very valuable asset. We offer them our sincere thanks and appreciation and assure them that without their aid, this memento and record of our high school days would have been impossible.

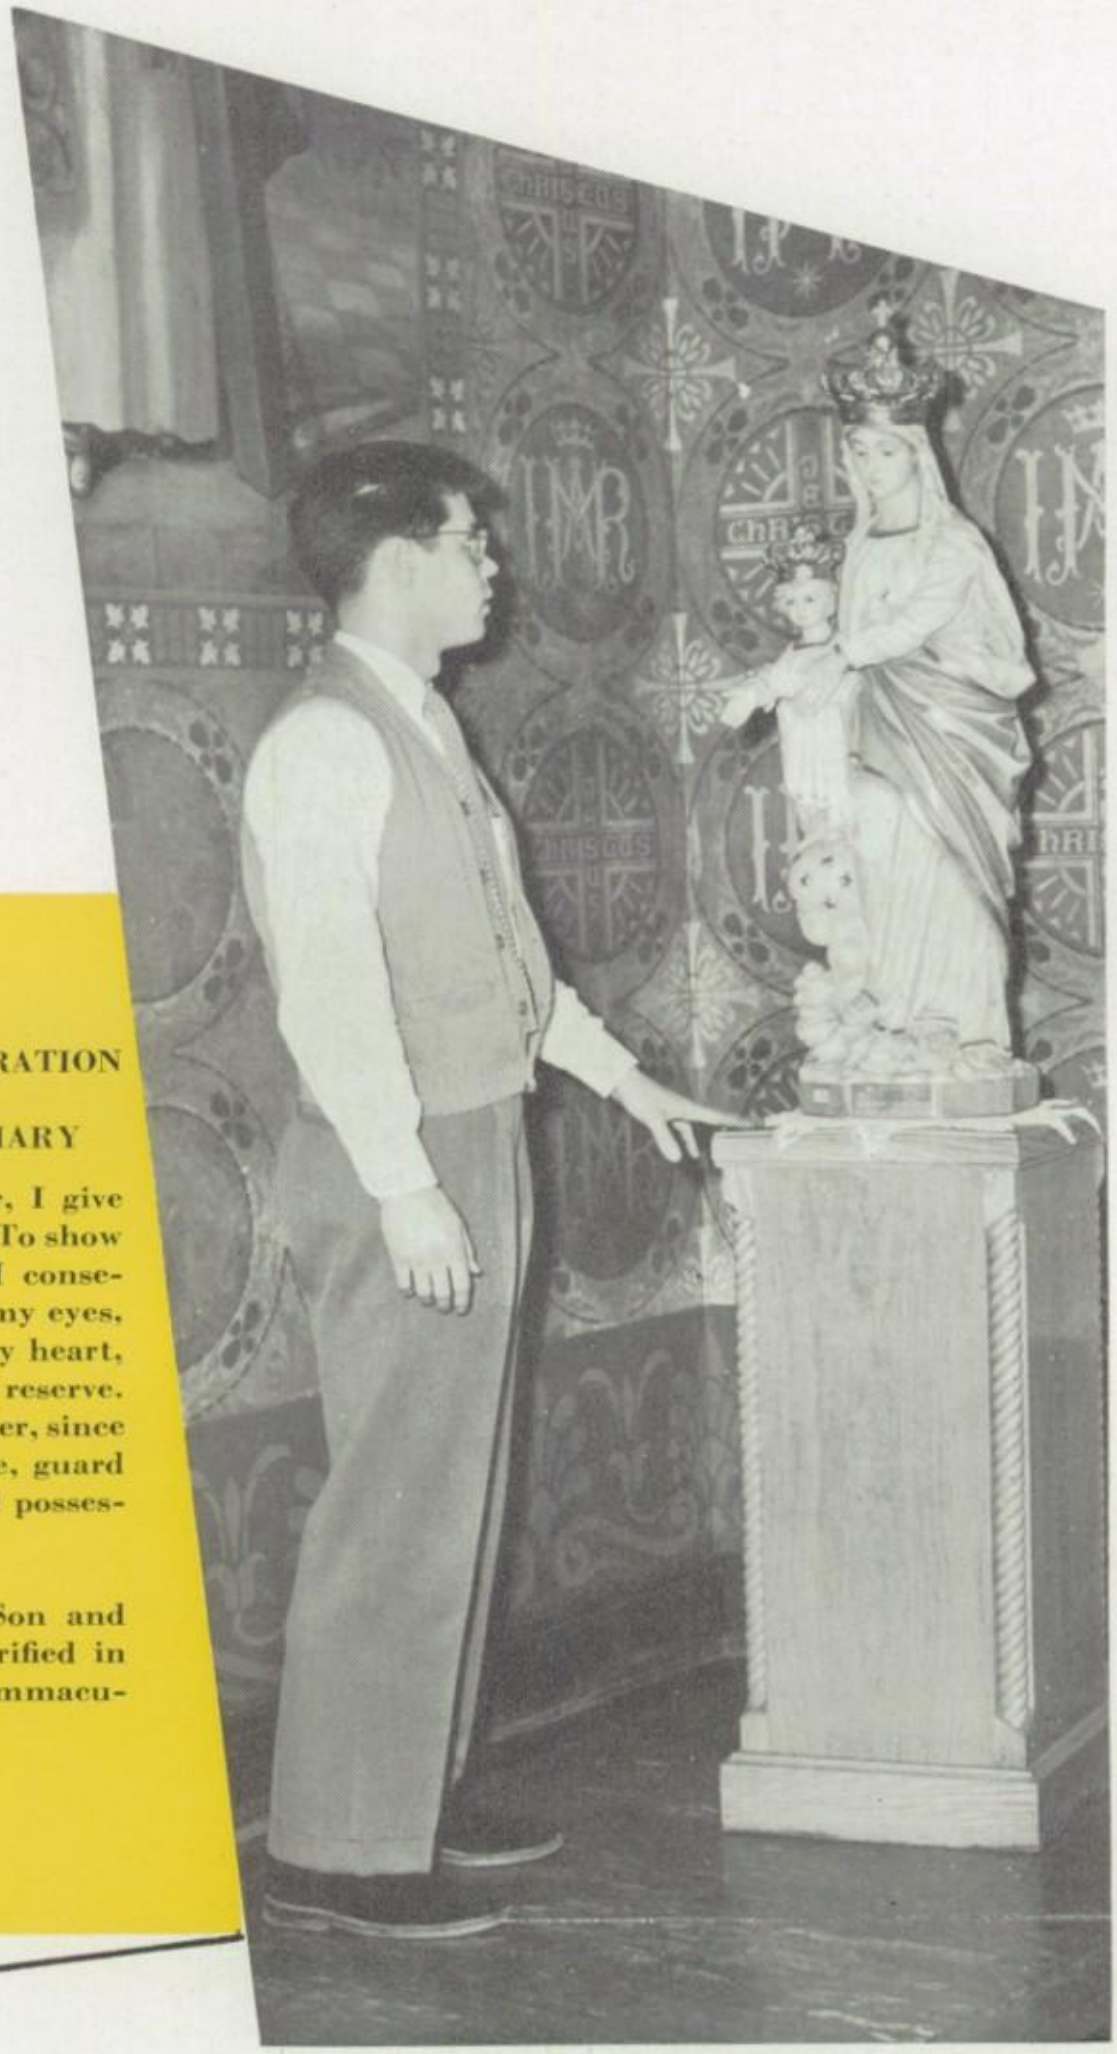
may we fulfill our pledge



AN ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

My Queen, My Mother, I give myself entirely to thee. To show my devotion to thee, I consecrate to thee this day, my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my whole being without reserve. Wherefore, O good Mother, since I am thy own, keep me, guard me as thy property and possession.

May the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary.

the credo . . .

The Latin Credo has been referred to as a "lab book" for applying Christian principles to daily situations. But if we are to fulfill our individual responsibilities we must make it a "rule of life," not only for high school, but for all our days.
